1. Of the units directly responsible to the Ministry of National Defense, the Artillery division previously at Prague has been transferred to Kolín, the 22nd Artillery Brigade, previously at Olomouc, has been transferred to Zilina, and the 101st Artillery Regiment of the 22nd Brigade, previously at Olomouc, has been transferred to Senica.
2. In the First District, the First Artillery Brigade previously at Zatec has been transferred to Slány. Comment: On 1 October 1946 the First Artillery Brigade was reported at Litomerice). The 201st Artillery Regiment which is part of the Brigade is already at Slány, but the 202nd is still at Hradec Králové.
3. In the Second District the 15th Fast Infantry Division, previously at Benešov, has been transferred to Kolín. The 2nd Infantry Brigade formerly at Benešov is dissolved but the dependent units remain. The 48th Battalion has been moved, and the 38th autonomous Infantry Battalion previously at Podbořany near Zatec is transferred to Čáslav. The 57th Artillery Regiment at Světlá Nad Sázavou has become the 82nd Artillery Group.
4. In the Fourth District the 12th Automobile Company is at Košice, and probably is attached to the Eighth Automobile Battalion at Košice. The Fourth Battalion of the Fourth Engineer Brigade, previously without garrison, is to move to Bratislava.
5. A 43rd Aviation Regiment at Přerov has been created, and is most likely earmarked for the Reconnaissance Unit of the Third District. Each of the four districts would thus have their own reconnaissance regiment and the first figure (4) would denote the reconnaissance function and the second figure would be that of the District.
